ORDER

People of MI v David Michael Nichols

Docket No. 281878

LC No. 07-020187-FH

Patrick M. Meter
Presiding Judge

Stephen L. Borrello
Judges

The motion to remand is DENIED because the Court is not persuaded of the necessity of a remand at this time. In particular, defendant's "offer of proof" consists only of hearsay from appellate defense counsel as to allegations made by defendant as opposed to being supported by an affidavit from defendant detailing his pretrial requests of trial counsel for further investigation and trial counsel's response to those requests.
